SPRING AT ELK COVE

GROWING OUR NEXT VINTAGE

Welcome to spring in Oregon wine country. Our vines are pruned and trained to their trellises and our 2021 rosé and white wines are all in bottle! Last year we brought in beautiful, intensely concentrated fruit and we are very excited to share these wines with you.

There's nothing like the gradual unfolding of spring here in the foothills of Oregon's Coast Range. The treefrogs are singing. The plum trees are in bloom - Elk Cove was once an orchard. Buddbreak will soon be here as grapevine leaves unfurl and we begin the countdown to the 2022 harvest.

Spring's mild weather also makes it an ideal time to ship wine, so we're running shipping specials in April and May to help you stock up for summer.

We send you wishes for a delightful spring. Cheers to a great 2022 growing season!
