2023 Reserve Pinot Noir

VINTAGE 2023 required experience and patience that was rewarded with essential hang-time and ripening. The growing season started cool, then May sunshine brought an average bloom in mid-June followed by a glorious summer. We enjoyed many classic 80-degree Willamette Valley days, with nighttime highs staying down in the 50s even in August, typically the warmest month here in Oregon. The only exception to these consistent diurnal swings was a single big heat spike in mid-August. We anticipated picking in early September. However, some fortuitous rain events allowed us to push back harvest and we were thankful for the additional hang time.

Harvest came early, but not too early. We brought in beautiful fruit and we were pleased to still be picking Pinot noir into early October. When you have fast accumulation of fruit sugars, cool weather can be a welcome respite with even small amounts of rain helping the grapevines regulate and slow ripening. One of the reasons why Oregon Pinot Noir is so prized is for its freshness of fruit, and you can only get that vibrancy when it's under 50 degrees during picking.

2023 brought amazing fruit quality, but our production was down, especially on cool climate white wines like Pinot Gris. Being an estate grown winery, we must follow Mother Nature's lead as we cannot buy fruit to increase production. Smaller yields do mean a smaller crop and less wine, but we embrace vintage variation. Another great benefit of being estate grown is that it's our decision exactly when to pick. Rather than rushing to bring fruit into the cellar, in 2023 we were able to play the odds and wait out the rain on blocks that needed additional hang time to get the flavor development we needed.

VINEYARD: Our winemaking team considers barrels from all of our estate plantings to make the Reserve our very best Pinot Noir. In 2023, the final blend included three barrels from Mount Richmond Vineyard, two from Roosevelt Vineyard, two from Five Mountain Vineyard, one from Clay Court Vineyard, and one from our Elk Cove Old Vines.

WINEMAKING: We only make a Reserve in exceptional years, selecting less than 1% of our Pinot Noir to make the best wine we can imagine, balancing diverse components from our best vineyard blocks.

Our Reserve is both big and structured, designed to improve with cellaring for 20+ years.

REVIEWS:

2022 Reserve Pinot Noir - 94 Points - Robert Parker Wine Advocate (July 2024)

"A barrel selection, the 2022 Pinot Noir Reserve is pure and expressive. It has layered scents of red cherry and raspberry preserves, rosewater, wild fennel and iron, revealing further detail as it transforms with air in the glass. The medium-bodied palate is powerful and concentrated with fragrant fruit, herb and spice layers. It's structured by finely grained tannins and fireworks of fresh acidity that brighten its floral perfume, and it has a very long, layered finish." – Erin Brooks
