Five Mountain Pinot Noir

PINOT REPORT
February 2008
93 "...silky texture, ripe black cherry flavor, spice, slight earthiness...good structure and balance; ...This is a terrific Pinot..."

STEPHEN TANZER'S INTERNATIONAL WINE CELLAR
May 2008
91 "Alluring bouquet of black raspberry, kirsch, allspice, incense, and cinnamon. The palate offers deep, sweet red and dark berry flavors, supple texture and fine-grained tannins that add gentle grip."

WINE SPECTATOR
April 2008
90 "Bright and lively. A crisp-textured style that emphasizes raspberry and warm-rain-on-slate minerality in equal measure, finishing with snap. Best from 2009 through 2013." - H. S.

La Bohéme Pinot Noir

ROBERT PARKER'S WINE ADVOCATE
October 2009
90 "... Slightly darker in color and more aromatic than its two siblings, this is a richer, more concentrated pinot that will evolve for 1-2 years and offer a drinking window extending from 2011-2019." - R. P.

PINOT REPORT
February 2008
94 "...deep, rich cherry and earthy flavors, silky texture, sweet oak, some tannin;...This Pinot has great depth and complexity, as well as a wonderful silkiness."

WINE SPECTATOR
May 2008
93 "Velvety in texture and generous with its blue plum...currant flavors, subtly weaving in notes of red meat and balsamic… the wine seems to pose on the finish, showing off its gifts." - H. S.
