OREGON'S 50 BEST WINES

BEST BUY 3. ELK COVE VINEYARDS
2010 PINOT NOIR
Willamette Valley, $27

97 POINTS

This beautiful, inexpensive pinot delivers what fans around the world think of as a classic Oregon version, with bold aromatics of black cherry and truffle that seem to jump right out of the glass. From one of Oregon's pioneering wineries—boasting a legacy of nearly four decades of great wine—it offers luscious flavors of ripe red cranberries, raspberries, and cherries characteristic of 2010's late-hanging harvest.
